

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corres. —

July means the month of mid-summer along the roadside or brook where the green grass is covered by feet of colorful flowers on the hillside. July also means Independence Day. I recall as a youth fireworks at night when rockets burst up high to show our pride in America as we wrote it in the sky. It was glorious, fireworks, and the bright flag of our proud ancestors at the head of the parade, a symbol that had the power to move the watchers to patriotism.

Today it's the same America with new washed woods, snow-capped mountains, a vast garden where the grass is green and covered with great clumps of wild flowers, multi-colored ferns and patterns, new green hay, sun dappled valleys, evergreen hills, rivers and lakes upon which ducks and geese paddle, drift and play with a host of other waterfowl. It's the splendor of blue sky, the art of living in the present and the thought of the past. It is the beauty of a summer here, a star-studded sky, glowing sunsets, the hum of wind in the tree tops, sailboats on rippling waters, hills wrapped in misty veils, and our youth playing on beaches and canyons over the country side.

It is the American boy, our greatest hope, alert, clear-eyed, and strong tomorrow. He will be a man before his stretch a road of vast opportunities America gives him that some flag of broad stripes and bright stars which has stood for justice and freedom for almost two centuries. Many previous generations cluster around it. Where ever it has gone it has brought the message of a better day.

The heritage which symbol in the red, white and blue is here to take and use carefully never break it so it may remain forever.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page is bound, showing the inner hinge and some stitching. The overall tone is warm and slightly yellowed.

SMITH - LANE

Miss Medora Gail Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Tyler, and Mr. Charles D. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Smith, exchange vows on Saturday, June 24, at 10 o'clock. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carl Kingsbury officiating at a double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of chiffon over tulle with a bodice and back of ruffles, long chiffon sleeves and high collar all trimmed with flowered lace. Her veil was a train length mantilla edged with lace to match the gown. She carried a bouquet of pink roses with white carnations.

Her sister, Miss Lee Ann Gilbert, attended the bride as maid of honor, wearing a full sleeved empire gown of pink dotted Swiss and carried one long stemmed pink rose accented with two white carnations to match the bride's bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Gilbert, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Roberta Gilbert, cousin of the bride. They wore gowns like that of the maid of honor only of blue dotted Swiss and each carried one long stemmed pink rose.

Miss Dorothy Lovejoy, friend of the bride, sang and provided the wedding music.

Miss Sheila Blake, sister of the groom, as flower girl wore a dress identical to the maid of honor only.

CARD OF THANKS
I extend my heartfelt thanks to all those who sent cards and letters, flowers and other gifts and to those who visited me during my stay in the Rumford Community Hospital. Also my family and I wish to express our appreciation to friends and neighbors for the delicious gifts of food.

BLANCHMONT ESTATES
For you who demand serene quiet and the beauty of rolling fields with clusters of birches this might well be your place.
The front porch of this rustic lodge is 73 feet long and is made for sitting and rocking... there's a semi-precious stone fireplace in the living room, large dining room, working kitchen, five bedrooms, many with running water, and a full bath — the furnishings, which are included, are for a great part custom designed. Electricity is produced from your own generator — the outbuildings consist of a workshop — ice house — garage with playroom over — all of this is surrounded by your own private 23 acres — there's even a small man made swimming pond... $42,000
